Ardent Italian Seeks Old Sweetheart Who Married Rival.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—"Now you'll have to fly with me," declared John Silva, 23 years old, of 215 West Sixty-sixth street, threatening a revolver into the face of pretty Margaret Hess, 22, of 58 West Fifty-second street, at the romantic hour of 12:30 o'clock this morning.

The revolver was only a 22-caliber affair, and it was empty, but that mattered not to the ardent Silva. The young bride was his old sweetheart, and he threw his arms about her and besought her to go with him.

Up to two months ago Silva and Margaret Hess, lovers, Silva is the foreman of a gas house gang, and seemed to have good prospects in life and in love. A month ago, however, John Hess, another gas house employee, succeeded in replacing the foreman in the dark-eyed Margaret's affections, and they were married.

Ardent Italian love was not, however, so easily to be cast aside, and so, soon after last midnight, Mrs. Hess, whose husband works all night, heard a knock at her door.

"Is that you, John?" she inquired. Yes, it was John—a case of two Johns. As she looked down the barrel of the empty little revolver.

Mrs. Hess's cries as she struggled to release herself from the embrace of her former lover and refused to fly with him brought the neighbors, and the police.

The West Forty-seventh street station, to the scene, and Silva was arrested on the charge of attempted assault.

GOVERNOR NEEDS A BRIDE
Gallant Colonel Smith Makes Anticipation Promise.

ELBERTON, Ga., Sept. 22.—Col. James M. Smith of Oglethorpe has opened his campaign for Governor. The startling promise to get married if elected was made at his first speech, and secured him a rousing reception.

Mr. Smith spoke for about one and a half hours, roundly scolding the professional politician, demagogue and chronic office-seeker. In his life he said, he had tried to follow the golden rule, and now that he was a candidate he expected his neighbor to do the same.

Col. Smith is unmarried, and is 52 years old, and has no doubt he will be elected. He had many ideas as to what should be done to help the State, and chief among them was to educate the girls of Georgia. He exclaimed: "No State can rise higher than the virtue and intelligence of her women."

He said because he was a bachelor was no reason why he should not be Governor. Alexander Stephens was a bachelor, and so was Grover Cleveland. Cleveland did well in marrying after his was elected.

"Who knows," said he, "why I could not do the same after I am elected?"

IN THE WILDS OF DULUTH

The two wanderers were sighted first by Miss Lena Raleigh, a sister-in-law of Mr. Murray, who saw them at the rear of the residence. Mr. Murray was in the yard at the time of the house when informed by Miss Raleigh of the presence of the visitors and ran to the home of a neighbor, where he borrowed the gun that put the cub out of existence.

Miss Raleigh said she thought the big bear was a muley cub. "That is," she added, "I did until it stood up."

Special Officer Wintner had been detained by the chief to look for chicken thieves in a neighborhood that had been much molested. Deffries, when going home, saw Officer Wintner on patrol in inspection on his own account, and the two men encountered each other among the outbuildings, with the result of the shot.

Its superiority is unquestioned.
Its fame world-wide.
Its use a protection and a guarantee against alum food.

Alum baking powders are detrimental to health. In most foreign countries their sale is prohibited. In many states in this country the law requires that alum and alum-phosphate powders shall be branded to warn consumers that they contain an unhealthy ingredient, while in the District of Columbia, Congress has forbidden absolutely the sale of food that contains alum. Alum baking powders may be distinguished by their price—one cent an ounce or from ten to twenty-five cents a pound.

MANY MEMORIALS OBJECTING TO PEACE
More Than Forty Associations Appeal to Mikado to Reject the Treaty.

TOKIO, Sept. 22, 4 p. m.—The number of direct memorials to the throne from different individuals and associations objecting to the conditions of the peace treaty and asking that its ratification be refused exceeds forty. The most conspicuous of these is an address signed by six professors of the Imperial university, one of whom recently was placed on the retired list, owing to a strongly worded anti-peace thesis of which he was the author.

The memorial of the professors, as published, strongly urges the necessity of refusing the ratification of the treaty of peace recently concluded, which it condemns as entirely annulling the purpose of the war, as stated in the declaration of hostilities. It also states the existence of indisputable reasons for the refusal of ratification, as the treaty is deemed to be pregnant with elements of humiliation and future danger to the interests of the nation. In conclusion, the memorial humbly begs consideration and consideration of the spirit in which it is presented.

Despite persistent editorials in the leading papers demanding the resignation of the Government Ministers, it is believed they will continue to hold office until the post-bellum measures, especially with regard to finance and the Chinese and Korean problems, have assumed a definite shape.

Indignity Is Unbearable.
It has transpired that, notwithstanding Premier Katsura's assurance to the editors, there exists a clause of the peace treaty by which Japan agrees not to fortify the Strait of Soya. Intense indignation is felt over this concession among influential men, by whom it is deemed the greatest humiliation Japan has ever suffered, as a restriction is thus placed on her territorial liberty.

Some go so far as to say that the indignity is unbearable and is the blackest record in the history of the country, which has never experienced defeat at the hands of other nations.

The constitutionalists are gradually assuming a firm attitude of opposition to the Government.

The editors of ten papers have met and appointed a committee to make representations of the Government against the unusually long suspension of the Asahi newspaper. Four members of the committee today interviewed Gen. Sakuma and other authorities, and it is expected that the paper will soon be allowed to resume publication.

COMPROMISE EFFECTED
King's Audience With Coalition Leaders Regarded Happily.

BUDAPEST, Hungary, Sept. 22.—The audience which the coalition leaders will have with the King-Emperor tomorrow is regarded most happily and there is widespread expectation that the compromise proposals which will be submitted by Count Julius Andrássy, Francis Kossuth, Baron Banffy and Count Zichy will lead to a settlement of the Hungarian question.

The coalitionists appear prepared to demonstrate to the King-Emperor their strong desire to meet the views of the crown on the army question by confining their demands to a general proposition for the development of the Hungarian army in accordance with the national spirit without insisting upon the use of Hungarian as the language of command.

WANT NO JIM-CROW LAWS
Negro Writers of Indian Territory Appeal to President.

MUSKOGEE, I. T., Sept. 22.—The Western Negro Press association, in annual meeting here today, adopted resolutions calling on the President and on Congress to oppose a statehood for Indian Territory and Oklahoma "unless an absolute guarantee can be given against Jim Crow laws and other laws discriminating between the races in public places." In endorsing the administration of President Roosevelt, who is spoken of as the greatest chief executive since the great emancipator, Lincoln.

Negroes are urged to acquire land, lynching and the perpetrators of crimes leading thereto are denounced, be they white or colored. Booker T. Washington's industrial policy is endorsed. President Roosevelt and Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock are to be informed that the rights given the freedmen in the territory to sell their lands without restriction are being abused, and if the evil is not stopped they will dispose of their homes and become paupers and wards of the nation.

TWO FACTIONS AFTER CONTROL OF U. S.
Stock Is Advancing Rapidly Under Heavy Buying of Shares.

Special to The Tribune.
BOSTON, Mass., Sept. 22.—Two factions in the United States Mining company, now both seeking control, are the Evans and Winslow factions.
